6 STORES ARE ENTERED; LOOT
IS OVER $500*"Skylight Burglar" in Successful
Efforts to Rob Several Stores in City*DISCOVERED IN ONE*Burglar Frightened Away in Attempt to Enter Nichols
Tailoring Shop

A "skylight burglar" entered at least five stores in Bismarck last night, stole about $600 in money and about $500 worth of pens and pencils. The method of gaining entrance was about the same in each case and the burglar's burglars appeared to be more anxious to steal what money could be found in cash registers than anything else.

The record of the night includes:
Entered Richmond's Bootery on Fourth street, but took nothing.
Entered Harris and Woodmansee's from Richmond's store, stole about $10 in money and about $500 worth of fountain pens and pencils, and $15 in pocketbook.
Broke into Wellworth store, obtained $10 in two cash registers. Stole less than $15 in money from cash registers in store of A. W. Lucas and Co.
Entered Economy Shoe Store, but obtained nothing.
Attempted to enter C. W. Nichols' tailoring shop, but was frightened away.

The theory was advanced by some that the work was that of boys, because candy was taken at Harris and Woodmansee. Several boxes of candy were missing. Some of it was thrown on the floor and a cash box in the rear of the store was filled with candy. There was evidence of candy being taken at the Wellworth store.

Burglar Is Seen.
A burglar was seen entering the C. W. Nichols Tailoring Shop on the second floor of the Lucas block, but was frightened away by John Velure. The burglar was on the roof. He raised a window, slid over the top of large clothes and was just ready to let himself down when he heard Mr. Velure and scrambled out in a hurry. Mr. Velure was sleeping in the shop. He walked into the entrance room of the shop and saw the burglar's legs dangling over the top of the clothes chests. Velure backed toward a case to get a revolver, when the burglar, having heard him, scrambled across the cases and out the window. He was a tall person, Mr. Velure said. This happened just after midnight when a train was in the station.

Other persons reported they saw three men standing in the alley at the side of the store of Harris and Woodmansee about 3 o'clock this morning. The burglars, unable to "jimmy" a door in the rear of Richmond's Bootery, broke a glass and entered. Nothing was disturbed so far as Mr. Richmond can tell. The cash register was left open, empty. The burglar entered the Harris and Woodmansee store through a skylight between the two stores. He rifled the cash registers in the store, obtained about $10, including $2 in pennies, and carried away fountain pens and pencils. So far as can be ascertained nothing else of value was disturbed, although apparently the carry case had been tampered with. The hatchway on top of the building was open, indicating the burglar had attempted but failed to gain entrance in that manner. He left by opening the rear door of Harris and Woodmansee.

A pocketbook belonging to Claire Derby and containing $15 of money of the Workmen lodge, of which he is recorded, was taken from a drawer directly below the cash register. In rifling the fountain pen case the burglars left only a few Eversharp pencils and only three fountain pens, one of which was a gold pen. No attempt was made to steal cigars, it is believed.

Breaks Through Roof.
The burglar entered the Wellworth store on Main street in an ingenious manner, apparently oblivious of risk he was running. He got on the roof and walked to the front end of the store, although on either side were buildings in which rooms were occupied by sleeping persons, with windows opened. He opened a hatchway, and crawled into the "attic," or space between the roof and plastering, provided in one-story buildings so that wiring may be repaired. He crawled probably 50 feet toward the middle of the building until he ran against a wall of the skylight. He then burst through the lath and plastering, dropped to the floor and began rifling the store. The burglar opened two cash registers, getting $5 from each. The third cash register is a large one, with combinations. He tampered with it but failed to open it. He stole a hammer and left by the rear door.

Must Be Slender Man.
The burglar got in the Lucas store through an opening so narrow that only a slender man could have done it. He took the putty out of the glass covering the small skylight, laid it aside and let himself in. He rifled the cash registers. One cash register he was unable to open, and broke a plate in trying to do so. He left the store the same way he entered, and replaced the glass. It was not believed anything was taken except money, the amount of which was less than $15.

PROCLAMATION

Spring Clean-Up campaign, May 1 to 6—Come on, let's put things in order. Our whole city should be made as clean and orderly as its cleanest home. Then we will have a safer, happier and healthier city. All citizens are urged to clean up their premises of rubbish, trim their shade trees and make a general cleaning during the week.

Every organization in Bismarck which has the welfare of the city at heart, is urged to join in this campaign and make it a success from every standpoint. The cooperation of all the people is asked in this campaign.

Therefore, I, A. P. Lenhart, president of the city commission, and with the approval of many far-seeing and zealous citizens, designate the week of May 1 to 6 as Spring Clean-Up Week.

A. P. LENHART,
Pres. City Commission.

SHARP DEMAND
NOW FOR LABOR
ON N. D. FARMS*Many Places Open to Men Who
Will Go Into the Country
For Busy Season*WANT EXPERIENCED HELP

Fargo, April 22.—There is sharp demand for experienced farm help in North Dakota, according to Mrs. M. E. Howe, in charge of the U. S. Employment office here, and H. B. Fuller, state secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Fuller will try to secure help from the Minnesota Federation he said today.

The start made in seeding is causing the suddenly increased need for men, according to Mrs. Howe. Farmers are offering on the average $35 per month or $1.50 per day with board, said Mr. Fuller.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE OPENED.
Minot, April 22.—A new state employment office was opened here yesterday and met with strong demand for farm help. It serves the territory of about 11 counties in the northern part of the state. Farmers in this territory are offering in the neighborhood of $35 per month.

CALLS NOT FILLED.
A number of calls for farm hands in this section of the state are unfilled by the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, where the federal employment service for this section is maintained. There are, however, a number of applications of widows, children and married men for farm work for whom there are no positions.

KOSITZKY CASE
IS CONTINUED*Stipulation Gives Him Office In Meantime

Carl R. Kositzky, appointed land commissioner, will conduct the business of the office until the matter is settled in court, under a stipulation signed by Attorney General Johnson and William Langer, attorney for William J. Prater. At the same time it was agreed to continue the hearing on the writ of mandamus issued by Judge Nusslein in district court from April 22 to April 28, and to submit at the same time the case of John Bloom, whose place as fish and game commissioner was declared vacant.

The stipulation provides that Prater shall turn over the office, keys, records, etc., to Kositzky, which he has heretofore refused to do, without surrendering any legal rights in the matter.

FILE PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY

New York, April 22.—A petition in bankruptcy against the U. S. Food Products Corporation was filed in federal court today. Liabilities of $56,996.830 were listed.

CAHILL CASE HEARING HELD

Hearing on the application for change of venue from the Morton to the Burlington county district court in the Cahill-Murphy case was to be this afternoon in Mandan before Judge Berry.

BOND ISSUED TO L. J. WEHE

Commissioner of Insurance S. A. Olesness has issued new bonds to L. J. Wehe and S. S. McDonald, covering their extended terms on the state board of administration. McDonald had contested Wehe's right to sit on the board on the ground that he had not filed a new oath of office for the extended term and had not filed a new bond. The issuance of a new bond was at first refused by Commissioner Olesness.

KILL POLICEMEN, STEAL $7,500

St. Louis, N. D., April 22.—Two policemen were killed and another was wounded seriously today by pay-roll bandits who held up a branch office of Morris and Company, packers. The robbers stole between $6,000 and $7,500.

FRAZIER WILL NOT DROP OUT

Fargo, N. D., April 22.—Former Governor Lynn J. Frazier is reported in a telegram received here as saying that he will not withdraw if nominated for senator in the June primary but will be in the fight to the finish.

5 DEATHS ARE REPORTED FROM
OIL EXPLOSION*Score or More Persons Are Burned in Varying Degrees
In California

Los Angeles, Calif., April 22.—Five deaths were reported today as a result of the explosion yesterday morning at Downey of a gasoline tank and a gasoline tank wagon. Five others were seriously burned and were reported in a critical condition.

A score or more other persons were burned in varying degrees. A little fire started in the house of the gasoline filling station while a gasoline tank wagon was filling the large buried supply tank.

A fire alarm brought scores of high school students and towns people joining the efforts to extinguish the flames. Suddenly one of the tanks exploded, followed quickly by explosion of the truck. The fire fighters were hurried in all directions enveloped in the liquid flames of more than a thousand gallons of gasoline.

IMMIGRATION
FORCES GATHER*37 Local Units Organized in Northwestern States

Minot, N. D., April 22.—All local units of the Northwestern North Dakota Development association will send at least one delegate to the conference to be held in Minot today for planning immigration work for the entire district.

Some 38 or 37 local units have been organized and close to 40,000 have been either pledged or raised by these units. The money is being spent by each local unit and the work is being carried on along the plan adopted by the Minot Association of Commerce which is serving as the Minot unit of the Association. The conference tomorrow will enable the members of the various units to exchange views on their work.

Much literature is being sent out in an effort to secure as many prospective settlers as possible to make a homeseeker's trip to Minot vicinity in May, June or July. A special appeal has been made to people in the Minot section to write letters to their friends in other states urging them to come to this territory on homeseekers' excursions.

Many quarter sections have been listed by the Association of Commerce. Listings are being received each day.

VOTE MONEY FOR SLAB IN 1881

Several days ago it was announced in Washington that North Dakota was one of the few states in the union which had not placed a memorial block in the famous Washington monument.

Mrs. M. H. Jewell, employed in the office of the secretary of state, has discovered that the territorial legislature of 1881 passed a measure providing for a North Dakota slab, which apparently had not been carried out and had been long forgotten.

The bill, approved March 18, 1881, by Governor N. G. Ordway, of the territory, provided an appropriation of $200 for providing a memorial block of red granite or quartzite to be taken from the Dell Rapids quarry in Minnesota, now in South Dakota, the slab to be four feet by two feet six inches.

FORKS WAREHOUSE BUILT

Grand Forks, N. D., April 22.—The new Grand Forks storage warehouse, with a storage space of 40,000 feet, will be ready for use early in June, according to Fred Kedney of the Kedney Warehouse company of Minneapolis, who is in the city today making preliminary arrangements for the opening.

As soon as the structure is completed the company which has leased it from Thomas Berge, local contractor, will send a crew of experienced warehouse men to this city. The company will operate only a commercial warehouse. Factory goods will be shipped here for storage and distribution throughout this district.

NEWSPAPERS OF

At Jamestown*PRAISE NESTOS REGIME*Strong Editorial Support For Mc-Cumber Is Indicated in the Convention Comments

General satisfaction is felt by newspapers of the state over the result of the Jamestown convention in the newspapers of the state. Their tone indicates that Senator McCumber will have strong editorial support in the press of the state in his campaign for the Republican nomination in June.

The Jamestown Alert does not find any considerable satisfaction in the fight over the senatorial issue, but does praise the solution reached with regard to the state ticket. It concludes that it would have been better never to have included the call for nomination of a senator in the convention call. This newspaper says:

"By no stretch of optimism however, can it be said that the results of the senatorial issue before the Independent Republican convention terminated anywhere nearly as successfully. The issue, ending in a draw, with no endorsement all for United States senator by the Republicans left the situation about as before the convention, and, using hindsight, it seems apparent that endorsement of a United States senator should never have been put upon the program of the Republican state convention at Jamestown.

"But between now and June 28, the voters will have ample time to settle in their own minds, the senatorial problem the Republican convention failed to solve. The voters can be counted on to give this particular matter their closest attention in the next few months, scrutinize every candidacy most meticulously and then pick the man best able to serve North Dakota at Washington.

Would Choose McCumber
The Fargo Forum, which had been an on-spoken critic of Senator McCumber, says that at between former Governor Frazier and Senator McCumber it certainly must stand with the latter. It holds that the settlement reached at Jamestown insures unity behind the state ticket. It concludes editorially:

"Meanwhile the opponents of Senator McCumber are not bound by any agreement expressed or implied, as to the senatorship. They have every right, in all fairness, if they so desire to get together on another candidate. On the other hand, it is their privilege, if they are so disposed, to leave the present situation undisturbed and make their choice as best they can from among the candidates now in the field.

"The attitude of The Forum toward Senator McCumber has not been in the last changed by the convention. It is not hypothetical as to the future. (Continued on Page 2)

FLOODS CAUSE
$2,000,000 LOSS

St. Louis, April 22.—Apparently ending its flood rampage of spring the Mississippi river today was reported falling gradually from St. Louis to Cairo, Illinois, leaving in its wake more than 200 square miles of inundated farm land in southern Illinois, causing a loss of over $2,000,000 in crops, property and livestock and making about 1,000 persons, mostly negroes, homeless.

LEVEE BREAKS
New Orleans, April 22.—A levee on the west bank of the Mississippi river at Myrtle Grove, about 30 miles south of New Orleans, broke today and neighboring plantations are being flooded.

DRAKE MILL IS SHUT DOWN
Drake, N. D., April 22.—The state flour mill here has been shut down temporarily because of lack of orders. Manager Gorman will re-open the mill as soon as sales have decreased the amount of flour on hand, which is about 1,000 barrels. It is said by state officers that the milling business generally is slack, and that the mill probably can be re-opened soon.

CHANCE OFFERED FOR ANNAPOLIS

There is a vacancy in the Annapolis Naval Academy, for which graduates of first class high schools may apply, according to a telegram received here from Senator E. F. Ladd. The telegram says that anyone interested should make application immediately.

FORECAST FOR THE NEXT WEEK

Washington, April 22.—Weather outlook for the week beginning Monday:
Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri valleys, generally fair and normal temperatures.

Genoa, April 22. (By the A. P.)—George Chitcherlin, the Russian Soviet foreign minister, gave the Italian Socialists and Communists a shock today, by meeting King Victor Immanuel on the King's visit here and accepting his majesty's invitation to a luncheon on board an Italian dreadnaught.

PROTEST GERM IN REPLY
Genoa, April 22. (By the A. P.)—The French delegation to the economic conference has submitted a protest against the German reply to the allied note in which the Germans stated they would refrain from discussing Russian questions settled in the Russo-German treaty. The French contend the Germans under their reply may insist on discussing other Russian questions.

An English spokesman said a meeting of the entire British delegation this morning decided to consider the incidents that had arisen out of the Russo-German treaty as definitely closed.

AMERICA PUZZLED
Genoa, April 22.—Henry Wickham Stead, correspondent of the London Times, wired the Times today that an important American financial authority had confided to him that he had been trying to discover the economic basis of the Genoa conference but had failed.

"It had begun to suspect," Mr. Stead added, "that the whole thing was a sort of farce. I could not disguise the fact that the real basis of this conference was political."

WAITS WORLD MEETING
Genoa, April 22.—Hope that a world conference with the United States participating will be held after the Genoa meeting was expressed by the German chancellor, Dr. Wirth, at a meeting of Germans last night.

The Genoa conference itself is a step forward in the reconstruction of the world, he said, but this could not be completed without the United States.

WITHDRAWS MEMORANDUM
Paris, April 22. (By the Associated Press)—Russia has withdrawn the memorandum she submitted yesterday in answer to the report of the allied experts on Russian affairs, says a Havas dispatch from Genoa. Strong objections had been made to the memorandum in allied quarters.

FORBID COLLINS TO MAKE SPEECH

Belfast, April 22. (By the A. P.)—Michael Collins upon his arrival at Killybegs to deliver an address was met outside the depot by an Irish Republican Army officer armed with a revolver who warned him he would not be allowed to speak until an incident at Listowel, county Kerry, where the officer alleged one of his men was fired at, had been cleared up.

Commandant-General John McKewen, proceeded into town whereupon I. R. A. officers ordered the troops occupying the railroad hotel to surround the platform at the market place where Mr. Collins was to speak. A number of men in uniform carrying rifles and bayonets rushed out of the building. General McKewen when he heard of the order said that as an Irish soldier he claimed the right to go through Ireland and would not be deterred. The I. R. A. officers, however, appeared excited and determined. To a priest to attempt to dissuade him from his purpose he said he would not permit the meeting to be held.

Mr. Collins addressed his meeting at a private residence.

REED TARGET OF WILSON THRUST

Senator James A. Reed of Missouri is the target of an attack by former President Woodrow Wilson in a letter to a St. Louis newspaper. Wilson declares Reed who is seeking re-election, impeded him in drafting federal reserve legislation. Instead of aiding him, as Reed's campaign matter is said to have indicated.

ROAD BUILDING LESS; COSTS ARE
ALSO CUT LOW*Highway Commission Estimates
Are That $3,000,000 Work
Will Be Done*FEDERAL AID AVAILABLE

A decrease in the amount of road building in the state this year because of the general tendency toward economy is probable, according to engineers of the state highway commission. At the same time, with prices of road building reduced materially, it is probable that $3,000,000 will be spent in the state on federal aid highway projects.

The amount of road work planned in the state has been reduced by the state officials. It is estimated that there will be about $1,000,000 expended on projects carried over from last year and about $2,000,000 spent on new projects. The program for the year represents about a 25 per cent reduction from the program as was embodied in the requests submitted for federal aid during the winter.

Contracts let thus far this year show a material decline in prices. The prices are about 50 per cent less than the peak of last year's prices and about 25 per cent less than last year's average prices according to H. K. Craig, of the state highway commission office. Contracts let include 15.6 miles of gravel surfacing in Pierce county for $29,577.00; four miles of gravel surfacing in Eddy county for $4,342.90; 14.9 miles of gravel surfacing in Walsh county for $30,105.00.

Not all of the federal aid money available will be used in North Dakota this year. There is available $2,350,000 from the 1916, 1919 and 1921 federal appropriations and it is expected there will be about $775,000 made available by a 1922 appropriation by Congress. The state has available for engineering purposes $287,971.69 and it is expected the total amount available for the highway commission this year will be $340,000. Counties in the state have levied taxes to provide about $1,300,000 for road construction, according to reports to the highway commission. The state money available for engineering services is not sufficient to provide for all requests for road construction that have been made, it is said.

The state administration's insistence upon economy in both state and county government has resulted in the abandonment of plans for considerable work, it is said by contractors.

COAL CARS ARE STANDING IDLE

Chicago, April 22.—With the coal strike closing its third week of idleness for more than 600,000 miners, surveys of some of the fields show an accumulation of loaded cars on sidings with the market dull.

Central Illinois operators today reported 2,700 loaded cars awaiting order in southern Illinois. The total in the entire Illinois field is nearly 10,000.

FROST REPORTED IN MANY STATES

Washington, April 22.—Frost occurred last night from the Atlantic Coast west to Indiana and as far south as northern Virginia.

The board ordered the road to hold new elections among its shopcraft employees some time ago and the road refused to do so.

7 YEARS AGO*John Erickson, Living Near Duluth, Tells of Murder After

Of Woodsmen; Quarrel Occurred Late at Night

Duluth, Minn., April 22.—John Erickson, 61, a settler living near Fairbanks, St. Louis county, in an alleged confession to Sheriff Frank Magi today admitted killing Just Tommi, a woodsman, on July 8, 1915. Erickson confessed voluntarily when he learned county authorities had located the grave he dug in the woods and have brought the bones here. Sheriff Magi said Erickson is the father of five children. Tommi, who was about 40 years of age was unmarried and made his home with the Ericksons.

Erickson is said to have told the sheriff that he quarreled with Tommi while the two men walked home from a neighbor's home on the night of July 8, 1915. Erickson, it was said, told how Tommi drew a small pocket knife and attacked him and he pulled a long hunter's knife and stabbed Tommi in the heart.

County authorities returned yesterday with bones taken from a grave in the woods near Erickson's home which Erickson is said to have admitted he hid. According to the alleged confession Erickson hid Tommi's body under a brush pile near the road, burying it after three weeks.

MOTHER, FATHER, SON SHOT

Redfield, S. D., April 22.—Elmer Soehnermohr, 13, who shot himself last night with a rifle after his mother had been shot and killed and his father wounded, is expected to recover, physicians at a local hospital said.

Elmer, who weighs 250 pounds, is being kept under observation at a hospital. He told the coroner his mother was shot when his rifle accidentally discharged. Fearing, he said, that his father, J. E. Soehnermohr, living near here, would punish him he shot him in the jaw. Then he turned the gun on himself.

The coroner's jury met and decided to investigate further with regard to the boy's mental condition. The boy at the age of 13 had reached the weight of 250 pounds and had always been glow in grasping new or strange ideas, broke down after he has recovered from the shock of the wound and told the coroner of Redfield the shooting was an accident. He had not, according to the coroner, shot the gun was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck the mother below the nose penetrating to the brain and causing instant death.

The father lying in a hospital here today began to realize the significance of the crime which has wrecked his family of four, and left on his elder son, Carl. He can give no reason for the killing.

TEACHER'S BODY FOUND

Hill City, Minn., April 22.—The body of Miss Margaret Peterson, teacher, at the Logan school, who has been missing since April 1, was found in a wooded area near the village of Miss Peterson by a posse. The body was expressed that she had become lost in the woods and died from exposure.

Saturday morning, April 1, Miss Peterson left the school to visit her mother, at her home five miles away, with the intention of returning the following Monday.

Monday she did not return and the children took for granted the unauthorized vacation.

A member of the school board yesterday called Miss Peterson's mother and asked why her daughter had not returned to the school.

"But she is teaching, and has been," the mother replied.

G. F. Williams, Aitkin county coroner, was notified and ordered the search.

The path from the school to Miss Peterson's home is only a dim trail through the thick woods. The teacher apparently had wandered from the trail and it is believed had roamed about several days before death from exposure overtook her.

PENN. RAILROAD IS SUSTAINED

Chicago, April 22.—Federal Judge George Page today upheld the Pennsylvania railroad in its suit to test the power of the United States Railroad Labor Board by refusing to dismiss the temporary injunction granted by Judge Landis restraining the board from censoring the road for violating the board's decrees.

The board ordered the road to hold new elections among its shopcraft employees some time ago and the road refused to do so.

GLENBURN BANK HAS REOPENED

The Glenburn State bank has reopened, it is announced by the state examiner. It is the 18th closed bank to reopen, and was closed because of inefficient management Nov. 24, 1920. State Examiner Semington has left for a trip which will include attendance at all group bankers meetings in the state.

Missouri has more than 200 registered women physicians and surgeons.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM ADOPTED AT JAMESTOWN PUTS CAMPAIGN UPON RECORD OF NESTOS ADMINISTRATION

Condemnation of Conditions Left by Preceding Administration Contained in Them

WANT 'LOOTERS' PUNISHED

Repeal of Anti-Injunction Law And Revision of Compensation Rates Asked

Resolutions adopted by the Republican convention in Jamestown included:

Praise of Harding administration. Laudation of Governor Nestos and others of his administration. Condemnation of league management especially of industrial program and Scandinavian-American bank scandal.

Praised reduction of expenses by state administration.

Declare administration has restored state's credit.

Commends prosecutions of "looters." Demand workmen's compensation bureau's reserve be lowered within statutory requirement.

Want repeal of anti injunction law.

Favor amendment to national constitution doing away with tax exempt securities.

Support Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterways project.

Resolutions in full.

The resolutions in full follow:

The Republican party of the state of North Dakota assembled in convention at Jamestown reaffirms its allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and declares its determination to maintain the guarantees of civil, political and religious liberties therein contained. We reaffirm our fealty to the National Republican platform and to the administration of President Harding whom we commend for his vision on national needs and for his ability in conjunction with congress, in the reduction of taxation and forging normal out of the waste and extravagance of war.

When Governor Nestos and other members of the present state industrial commission were placed in office through the recall election, they found a scandalous financial condition in the Home Builders' association, the Drake mill and Bank of North Dakota. Since that time they have endeavored to untangle the skein of blunders made by the management of the Home Builders' association and uncovered the fact that the taxpayers of the state stand to lose in this adventure into socialism more than a half million dollars, together with unjustified hardships inflicted upon many citizens of the state who were induced to buy a home through this organization. They discovered that instead of a profitable venture, the Drake mill had been run at a loss of nearly one hundred thousand dollars, with every evidence of gross mismanagement and lack of knowledge of conducting such a business. An investigation of the Bank of North Dakota has developed its use by conscienceless officials in promoting deals through the Scandinavian-American and other banks for the gain of private individuals recognized as leaders of the Nonpartisan League, which manipulations indicate a loss to the people of the state of a million or more dollars. These and other tremendous wastes and unnecessary losses of public funds have placed staggering tax burdens upon the people of North Dakota, which, regardless of the best efforts of able minds and competent financing, cannot be wiped out in the near future; but to the task of reducing this burden the present administration has addressed itself with an earnestness and ability that brightens the future for every property owner. Therefore we appeal to the taxpayers of North Dakota to rally to the candidacy of Governor Nestos and his fellow state officers of the same political faith in the assurance that the trust and confidence placed in these men will not be betrayed.

Commend Nestos.

We commend the splendid energy with which Governor Nestos and his co-workers of the state administration have gathered up the shreds of government left by their predecessors and, despite adverse laws and commissions, over which they have so far had no control, have brought, in five short months, order out of chaos and have put upon a business basis the machinery of government; effected many reforms and largely reduced expenses and are paving the way to economies in every direction. We believe the record already made has the endorsement of every thinking taxpayer, and to these we appeal to join with us in the coming campaign that will enable them to finish the job.

We believe the work of a state administration is more a business than a political function, and that in the present state officers North Dakota possesses men of vision, of ability and indefatigable energy who can safely be entrusted with the duty of redeeming the state from its enormous burden of taxation. They have, by their able administration of affairs, brought order and sanity to the Bank of North Dakota, saved the farmers hundreds of thousands of dollars in hall warrant losses, negotiated satisfactorily the bond sales necessary to carry on the mill, and elevator program, financing the state bank, and providing for the return to the various sub-divisions of the state the money heretofore tied up in frozen assets, all this under the most trying circumstances, made for them by the retiring administration.

Credit Restored.

To the present administration is due the restoration of the credit of the state of North Dakota. Yesterday her securities could not be sold, save at a discount illegal, ruinous and wasteful. Today our securities of all kinds are sought in every market at par or better and the good name of the state has been restored throughout the country. We commend the present administration for its splendid accomplishment in the sale of hall warrants, by which two million dollars of ready cash was placed in the hands of our needy farmers instead of warrants, as heretofore, that were subject to ruinous discount and grief to hundreds of unfortunate people.

We commend the effort being made by the administration to bring to justice those parties who have used the state through the Bank of North Dakota, other banks and otherwise, for their own financial gain to the great loss of the state and a confiding public, and we urge that prosecution in the courts follow all discoveries of malfeasance in office and betrayals of the people by those who have used their positions of trust for private gain and loot.

We demand that the Workmen's Compensation Bureau still in Nonpartisan control, be brought within the law in the amount of its reserve fund, it being an unjust burden upon the business interests to charge far in excess of necessity.

We commend the efforts of the industrial commission to carry out the pledges of Governor Nestos made in the recall campaign that the mill and elevator should be completed at the earliest possible moment. The evidence of this keeping of faith with the people being the resumption of work on those enterprises and the prospect that they would be put into operation by the end of the year.

We demand the repeal of the law that now protects the I. W. W., known as the Anti-Injunction law, which leaves the farmer, the greatest employer of labor in the state, at the mercy of an element that practices sabotage and interferes with the proper conduct of farm work.

Want Amendment.

We favor an amendment to the National Constitution doing away with tax exempt securities as now proposed.

by what is known as the McFadden bill pending in congress. We express our appreciation to the people of Jamestown for the many courtesies extended the delegates to this convention and their efforts to make our stay in their beautiful city pleasant in every respect.

The republican convention amended its platform to include endorsement of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence tidewater canal project, and urged that the representatives of the state in congress support the building of the canal.

AT THE THEATERS

THE ELTINGE

"The Glorious Fool," from a Mary Roberts Rinehart story is the attraction at the Eltinge for Saturday Helene Chadwick and Richard Dix who played in "The Old Nest" and were starred in "Dangerous Curve Ahead." The story is the humorous vein, being a romantic comedy of the style which has made Mrs. Rinehart one of the most popular writers in America. Richard Dix is a young hospital patient who marries his nurse, Helene Chadwick, ten minutes before he is supposed to die. But he didn't die, which situation is the basis of the story. "Among Those Present," a Harold Lloyd comedy, is playing a return date at the Eltinge on the same program.

Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter in "Don't Tell Everything," are appearing for the last times tonight, Friday at the Eltinge.

NEW FOX FILM HERE WITH CHARLES JONES

Charles Jones, the William Fox star, who has jumped into the front rank of screen favorites in the past year, will be at the Capitol theater tomorrow in his latest picture of western life "Pardon My Nerve!" Those who have followed this clever horseman know that he has shown considerable nerve as well as increasing acting ability in each succeeding picture in which he has appeared. The natural conclusion is that he will out-nerve anything he ever has done when you see him in "Pardon My Nerve."

It is said he underwent special preparation for this picture in order to get up extra speed and additional power for the battles in which he has to take part.

Eileen Percy is Jones' leading woman in this offering, the story of which was written by William Patterson White.

GREAT CAST CHOSEN FOR "LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY"

Miss Pickford Uses Great Care to Get Proper People to Portray Parts

At no time in her career has Mary Pickford given more care to the choosing of a cast or to the assembling of suitable types than for her next United Artists film offering, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which will be the feature at the Rialto theater tonight and Saturday.

The leading character role, that of the gouty and irascible old Earl of Dorincourt, is played by Claude Gillingwater, footlight veteran whose most recent success was as the grouchy in "Three Wise Fools." Mr. Gillingwater has many other triumphs to his credit, having been on the speaking stage for more than twenty-five years.

This represents his first venture in pictures.

Joseph Dowling, who registered the pinnacle of cinema fame in "The Miracle Man," is playing the part of Havisham, the dignified, understanding and shrewd solicitor whose analytical mind does much to help solve the great difficulty which forms the climax of the story. Those three lovable characters, the "grocer," the applewoman and the bootblack, are portrayed in their respective order by James Marcus, Kate Price and Fred Malartus. Marcus played Hobbs, the grocer in the original Fauntleroy cast on the stage in 1895. Kate Price is recognized as one of the greatest delineators of Irish character parts on the screen. As the mother in Mary Pickford's "Amarilly of Clothes Line Alley" she was a tremendous hit. She also appeared in Miss Pickford's last production, "Through the Back Door," also with Douglas Fairbanks as Mrs. Canby in "Arizona." The Leaky features that Kate Price has appeared in are far too many to enumerate, and she was one of the first stage actresses to take up picture work.

TO MAKE TEST OF SUGAR BEETS

Commissioner Kitchen Has Plan For Obtaining Data

Because of many requests for information concerning availability of North Dakota land for raising sugar beets, the department of agriculture will arrange for the planting of sugar beets at several state institutions, Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor Joseph A. Kitchen said today. Present plans call for cultivation of one acre patches at the insane asylum at Jamestown, penitentiary at Bismarck and state training school at Mandan. At the Mandan school one-half acre will be irrigated and one-half acre not irrigated. The same seed will be used in all cases.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely, and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden; some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-sought-for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

CRACK WELTERS READY FOR BOUT

Buddy McDonald and Bat Krause Will Hook Up in Mandan

Both "Bat" Krause, Bismarck boxer, and "Buddy" McDonald, St. Paul welterweight, were in good trim for the boxing exhibition in the Mandan fair grounds arena tonight.

McDonald worked out in St. Mary's gymnasium, Bismarck, yesterday afternoon in the presence of scores of local fans. He skipped the rope for two rounds, shadow-boxed for two, punched the bag for one. He then boxed with Tommy Hanson, lightweight of St. Paul, and Kid Fogarty of Bismarck. He praised Fogarty and said that with a little more experience, he should make a cracking good lightweight. Fogarty will box six rounds with Johnny Smith at Mandan.

The boxing match at Mandan starts at 7:30 o'clock, Mandan time. Because it has been called earlier than was anticipated a couple of preliminaries will be added. Arrangements have been made to hold the ferry until Bismarck falls are ready to return. Al Barton will referee. He says there will be no "swalling" permitted. The White Bus will leave the Grand Pacific at 7 p. m. for Mandan.

WEED FLAVOR IN MILK CAUSE OF HEAVY LOSS

Dairy Commissioner Flint Issues
Statement on Methods of Reducing Loss

Methods of reducing heavy losses caused dairy interests each spring by weedy flavored milk are explained by R. F. Flint, dairy commissioner. Mr. Flint says:

"Each late cold spring weedy flavored milk and cream causes heavy losses to the dairy interests in North Dakota. This especially applies on the Slope where there are gumbo patches, where growth and close pasturing reduced the available supply of old grass, and where there is a scarcity of feed. The wild onion and other weeds start earlier than the grass and cows permitted to range on these, which gives to the milk, cream and butter a decidedly objectionable flavor, even eggs are distinctly weedy flavored. It is difficult to realize until one has eaten the onion flavored milk and butter how objectionable this flavor is in these products. No flavor to butter will so reduce its sales value. Unfortunately no process has yet been found that will eliminate onion flavor in butter. The only way, therefore, is to prevent the cows from eating them, and that is more easily described than done. The best method is to keep cows from pasture until the grass is well started. Another is to take up the cows three to four hours before milking.

"In any event cows in milk should have hay and feed in addition to the small amount of nutriment they procure from early pasture. Do not mix weedy flavored cream with that not so flavored; market each separately. When marketing cream call attention to the buyer or mark the tag on the can that contains weed flavored cream. The manufacturers will then set the weedy cream aside to be churned separately. One can of weedy cream will pollute an entire churn and reduce the sales value of the butter from one fourth to one half. The earnest cooperation of all interested is important to reduce financial loss to our dairy interests."

BIG PICTURE COMING
When "Ten Nights in a Barroom" is shown at the Eltinge next week, the people of Bismarck will have the opportunity to see one of the newest picture sensations. This picture is a late production based on an old time favorite and during the past few weeks as well as at the present time is showing in the leading theaters throughout the country. For sixty years the play "Ten Nights in a Barroom" has been read as a novel and played on the speaking stage and the picture is one of the best melodramas now being shown on the screen.

MARY PICKFORD CHAMPION FOR LABORERS TROUBLES
Mary Pickford proved herself the champion of union labor and its principles during the filming of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" now showing at the Rialto theatre.
While this photoplay was in progress of production, a strike was called in the picture industry which involved all carpenters, electricians and projection-machine operators. The men walked out because of a wage cut put into effect by producers. Mary Pickford, however, did not cut the wages of any of her employees and refused also to cut down her working force.

CHARLES JONES WINS IN "PARDON MY NERVE!"
Sometimes when a fellow essays to defend a girl he takes on quite a job. But after he takes the first step he will not turn back if he is the right sort of a chap. Charles Jones, the William Fox star, proves to be the right sort in his latest picture, "Pardon My Nerve!" which opened an engagement yesterday at the Capitol Theatre. Eileen Percy, the Fox star, is the leading woman in this production.

"Every one in this cast does justice to the speedy pace set by Jones. One in particular, a little fellow, should have a paragraph all by himself. He's a brindle bull. How he can act! His education and training have developed exceptional results.

"Pardon My Nerve!" will be at the Capitol Theatre until and including tonight only. Go see it. You'll like it.

DIES IN IOWA
Wilton, N. D., April 22.—John Hammack received word last week of the death of his mother, Mrs. Miranda Hammack, who was in her 93rd year. She was a former resident of Wilton before moving with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Hammack, to Mount Pleasant, Iowa. Mrs. Hammack was a devoted Christian woman and lived a most useful life of service to her God and her fellow men.

TO INCREASE FORCE
Grand Forks, N. D., April 22.—It was announced today that it was expected a number of additional men will be employed at the state mill and elevator next Monday. At that time it is planned to start pouring concrete for floors of the big elevator. This work has been delayed during the past week because of the cold weather.

Jo Dell Dancing Classes Now Held In Legion Hall

Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl JoDell of the Minneapolis School of Dancing, who have been teaching in this city for the past two months will take over the American Legion Hall for their new location, starting Monday, where they will continue their dancing instructions. Mr. and Mrs. JoDell spend six months out of the year away from their Minneapolis School teaching in other cities. Last year they taught at Devils Lake and Minot. Upon being questioned in what our dancing is today, he remarks: Teach them the proper positions and proper steps; let them see for themselves the grace and beauty of the newer Waltz and Fox trots when danced correctly and there will be little trouble with freak dances. The Conversation Fox-Trot and the Weslyn Waltz are two dances which Mr. JoDell believes will become very popular this season. The outstanding features of these dances, he points out, are simplicity and grace, and he predicts that they will go a long way toward supplanting such dances as the toddle and the camel walk. The Conversation Fox-Trot especially has already gained a firm foothold in the Twin Cities, he declares.

MASONS' SOLDIER SAILOR HOSPITAL IS DEDICATED

Memorial To Members of the Craft Who Lost Lives In The World War

232 BEDS IN HOSPITAL

Utica, N. Y., April 22.—The Free Masons of New York state today dedicated with impressive ceremony the new million dollar Soldiers and Sailors Memorial hospital at the state Masonic home in this city. It is a memorial to members of the craft who lost their lives in the World War.

Robert H. Robinson, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, presided at the ceremonies, assisted by his associate grand officers and distinguished members of the order from other jurisdictions.

The hospital was erected under the supervision of the War Relief Administration of the fraternity. The money expended was the residue of the war fund passed by the 234,000 Masons in New York for relief of their brethren bearing arms.

The hospital, which has 232 beds at present, represents the best work in construction and equipment. The staff of physicians and nurses will minister to the ailments of the distressed.

The furnishings have been provided for by individual lodges and generous donations from members. Its maintenance for five years will be provided by contributions among members of the order, after which the income from an endowment fund is expected to carry along the major expenses.

The endowment fund was established two years ago by an amendment to the ancient constitution of the Grand Lodge, whereby in addition to individual gifts, lodges pay into a perpetual trust $10 for every initiate and from $5 to $10 for every affiliate.

The new structure forms a striking addition to the group of fine buildings in the beautiful Mohawk Valley, comprising the Masonic home, where needy and aged members of the order and their dependents live. The other buildings are: The main buildings, the Daniel D. Tompkins Memorial Chapel; the Girl's building, presented by Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, the Boy's building, the Administration building and a farm. The home here is believed to be one of the most complete Masonic homes in the world. More than 25,000 visitors annually visit it and inspect the schools, gymnasium, library and other features. Special attention has been given to orphaned children of Masons. A kindergarten is maintained and the older children are given instruction up to the sixth grade, when they are sent to the local public schools. A collegiate education is given to any child whose progress seems to warrant it.

NEWSPAPERS OF STATE SEEM TO BE SATISFIED

tend that Senator McCumber has suddenly become a desirable candidate or one for which it can throw up its hat and cheer. But The Forum is engaged in the business of running a newspaper, not in the business of running a political party. It has no candidates of its own for the office of United States senator. If it comes to a flat choice between Senator McCumber and Mr. Frazier, The Forum certainly will urge the support of Mr. McCumber.

"And meanwhile we have a state ticket for which we can all take off our coats and go to work. The plan for fusion on the state ticket is declared by The Forum to be an 'open covenant openly arrived at' and one which is devoid of any charge of trickery or chicanery.

Praises Administration

The Mandan Pioneer says the one dominating feature of the convention was the determination of the delegates to hold fast to the gains of the recall election and "make possible a complete restoration of the state government to men who would extend the confidence we have gained by the splendid work of Governor Norton, and Messrs. Kitchen and Johnson of the Industrial Commission."

Regarding the Senatorship it says "it was clearly evident from the outset that the supporters of Senator

McCumber were largely in the majority." It concludes:
"It has seemed to the Pioneer incomprehensible how any suggestion to 'split' Senator McCumber could be seriously considered. At no time in the history of the state has any of its representatives in congress achieved so high a position in the national councils, a place that does honor to North Dakota as much as to the senator himself.

For McCumber
The Dickinson Press has not had time to comment on the convention in its issue of this week, however, it speaks plainly on the senatorial issue as follows:

"Senator McCumber probably has his faults the same as the rest of us. He probably makes just as many mistakes. But despite these faults, credit should be given him in no small measure for the good that he has done for the state during the 23 years that he has served the people of North Dakota.

"And if nothing else is taken into consideration we do not believe that the farmers of drouth stricken North Dakota will forget his efforts in securing the quick passage of the bill providing federal relief for the purchase of seed this year. No other man in the senate could have done this and the relief afforded may be the means of saving many a farmer his farm. Nor will they forget that last year he was active in securing federal relief for the same purpose. A thousand and one achievements for the state might be cited as an endorsement of the record he has made during his long term of service. But the above should be sufficient to convince any man that he has been working in the interests of his constituents and has not betrayed his trust as his opponents claim.

"His opposition comes from those who are jealous of his prestige and who desire to manipulate the political patronage which he now controls. In their demands made upon him this week the leaders of the irreconcilable faction of the independent Republicans admitted as much. In fact, this was the main provision of their proposed 'peace treaty.' And in order to gratify their greed and avarice they are willing to deprive North Dakota of representation in the senate to which it is justly entitled by forcing the election of a man who at the best would make a good hall tree or an elevator operator for the senate chamber.

The Grand Forks Herald says:
"In refraining from action on the United States senatorship the Jamestown convention did not commit itself, even by implication, to any candidate. Those in the convention who desired the endorsement of Senator McCumber, those who desired the endorsement of some other candidate, and those who desired no endorsement at all, pledged themselves without reservation to support at the primary election the state ticket endorsed by the convention, and in the later campaign to aid in carrying out the agreement made by Republican and Democratic state committees for a fusion ticket for the fall election and to support such ticket at the polls. All persons who participated in the convention are bound in honor on those points.

"On the senatorship there is entire freedom of action, and full liberty to choose from among the candidates who are now in the field or who may enter it later. Of the active and avowed candidates there are three: Senator McCumber, who seeks reelection; Mr. Frazier, who has the endorsement of the Nonpartisan league convention, and Mr. Gronna. Judge Christianson, whose endorsement was favored by many of the delegates, has declared that under no circumstances would he be a candidate in opposition to any candidate endorsed by the convention, or if the convention should make no recommendation. He is therefore eliminated. P. D. Norton was a candidate for the convention endorsement, and he is free to continue in the field if he desires. Any other person who has senatorial aspirations is at liberty to announce his candidacy, and any individual voter or group of voters may support him and be in perfect harmony with the spirit and the decision of the convention."

International Service is Permanent

THE resources of a ninety-year-old manufacturing, sales and service organization is at the command of every International Motor Truck owner. This organization includes two large and complete factories, centrally located, where International Motor Trucks are built, and direct Company branches in ninety-two principal cities. In addition there are dealers in every section of the country who maintain well equipped service stations such as ours. Spare parts valued at millions of dollars are held in stock in the Company's warehouses, branches, and dealers' service stations, similar to the stock we carry for the convenience of our customers.

Such is the foundation of International Service. On it is built a nation-wide after-sale service of such magnitude and permanence that every International owner is directly benefited.

International service operates through the ninety-two branch houses and thousands of local dealers thus coming in direct touch with every owner. At regular intervals road engineers traveling out of each branch house inspect the International Motor Trucks in use and instruct owners and drivers how to care for their trucks properly. Ask any owner what he thinks of this free inspection service.

Each International owner is thus provided with more than the best truck it is humanly possible to build—back of the truck stands a service that eliminates unnecessary, costly delays and assures maximum performance from the truck at the lowest possible cost.

Built in 11 sizes—1500 to 10,000-pound capacities. Bodies for every hauling purpose. Come in and let us explain how International Service can help you in your own business.

Lady Foresters Give Dance and Card Party

The Lady Foresters are busy this week making plans for their dance to be held next Tuesday evening, April 25, in St. Mary's gymnasium. This is the first "after Lent" dance the Foresters have had and the committee in charge are doing everything possible to make the affair an enjoyable one.

What will be played in the Auditorium of the school by those who do not care to dance. Wagner's orchestra will furnish the music.

A short business session will precede the dancing and card party and all members are requested to be present promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Birthday Party Is a Success

A large number of members and friends enjoyed the birthday party given by the ladies of the Third Division of the McCabe Methodist aid at the church on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Clough was in charge of the program.

The following program was given:
Vocal solo—"Sunshine and Rain"—(Jacques Blumenthal)—Mrs. A. Schutt accompanied by Mrs. John Larson.
Piano selection—Brahms Dance Number 7—Miss Rowley.
Vocal selections—Mrs. F. G. Ackerman accompanied by Miss Rowley.
Japanese Love Song—"Jean"—Miss Rowley.
Readings—Mrs. W. G. Newton—"Pat Casey"—Ladies Aid.
Vocal solos—Mrs. John Larson—"The Bird and the Rose," "The Mission of the Rose."

At 5 o'clock a delicious lunch was served at tables attractively decorated with Easter lilies, cut flowers and red candies. A birthday cake formed the center piece at each table. Toasts were given by Mrs. Richard and Rev. Halfyard and original poems were given by Mrs. L. P. Stiver and Mrs. George Wallace.

Girls' and Boys' Band Organized

W. L. Dodson, director of the Boys' and Girls' Band in Bismarck announces that the Boys' band is well organized and that the organization of the Girls' Band is well under way. The first practice was held at the high school last evening with 28 boys in attendance and 15 girls.

It is planned to have the two bands meet together until the Girls' band is completely organized. The use of the gymnasium of the high school has been donated and practices will be held every Wednesday and Thursday nights. A special meeting for the Girls' band will be held Wednesday night at 7 o'clock to select the instruments.

Following are the names of boys in the band: Scott Cameron, William Dohn, Manning Finwall, Zeph Hollenbeck, Lee Hughes, Donald Jones, Frank Kibben, William Lenhart, Charles Luesman, Harry Lobach, Emmett McCormick, Guilford Mandigo, William Newcomb, Arthur Prater, Sidney Rigler, C. Miss Gish and Mr. Gross Married

Miss Grace Gish and Mr. Roland M. Gross, both well known young people of the city, were married yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at the guild hall of St. George's church, the rector, Rev. T. Dewhurst, officiating according to the rites of the Episcopal church. The nuptials were consummated in the presence of the nearest of kin of the bridal pair. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served. At 7:30 Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gross left for the Twin Cities. Returning week after next, they will be at home at their suite at the Hazelhurst.

Mr. Gross desires a correction of a previous item to the effect that, speaking of his military service he volunteered and was entered in the Mechanical Training detachment, stationed at the South Dakota university at Vermillion.

Large Crowd Attends U. C. T. Garden Party

About 125 couples attended the Garden party given by the members of the U. C. T. at Patterson's hall last evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with mixed flowers and pink and white paper ribbon streamers. Fruit trays were served during the evening and refreshments were served after midnight.

Much credit for the success of the affair is due the committees in charge: Mrs. Lerum in charge of the refreshments, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Brink, Mrs. DeRoche and Mrs. Ullman on the dance committee, Mrs. Lerum, Mrs. Oberg and Mrs. Keller, entertainment committee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. DeRoche and Mrs. Mackin, decoration committee.

Program of Folk Dances Is Given

The Tuesday Musical Club met with Mrs. E. D. Rose at her home on Rosser yesterday afternoon. Eighteen members were present at the meeting.

The leader, Mrs. Hughes read a paper on, "The Purpose of the Primitive Dances." The paper was outlined to include the following phases of development: primitive dances and religious dances among ancient civilizations, development of musical forms, and the entrance of the folk dances into modern music.

The music consisted of selections from the music of the different nations. The following program was given:
Danish Folk Dance—(Christiani)—Mrs. Tracy.
Gaelic—English Dance—J. A. L. Bruth.
Dance Caprice (Norwegian)—Grieg—Miss Hoffman.
Dance Russe—Tschalkowsky.
Bavarian Folk Dances—(Moser)—Mrs. Bauer.
Tarantelle—Italian (Liszt)—Miss Woodland.
Hungarian Rhapsody 2—(Liszt)—Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Bauer.
Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Local Class Takes First Aid Exams.

15 male employees of the North Dakota Independent Telephone company took the Red Cross first aid examination last evening at the company's office in the city. The examination was conducted by Mr. Boudeleld, of Grand Forks, who attended a special training course conducted by the N. W. Bell Telephone company at Omaha.

Mr. Boudeleld has conducted classes in Bismarck during the past several weeks and the examination is the culmination of this course of study and practical demonstration work. All of the employees taking the examination here passed with good marks and are full fledged first aiders.

The class finishing the course last evening was made up of employees from Bismarck, Mandan, Dickinson and Moorhead.

Dr. V. J. LaRose of Bismarck was present at the meeting, superintending the conduct of the examination and will issue first aid certificates to those receiving the required marks. Mr. Boudeleld leaves Bismarck today to conduct similar examinations at Minot and Williston.

DANCE IS A SUCCESS.
The dance and card party given by the Little Wonder Orchestra in the gymnasium and auditorium of St. Mary's school last evening was very well attended. Magdalen Madens and R. W. Patzman won the prizes for having the highest score. Mrs. Frank Giermann was chairman of the refreshment committee. Refreshments were served by the Catholic Daughters of America.

PROGRESSIVE DANCING PARTY.
The Misses Ruth Rawlings, Mary Cayou and Catherine Bodensah entertained at a progressive dancing party at their homes last evening. Dancing was the diversion of the evening and refreshments were served. There were 16 guests, Paul Jahr of Williston was an out of town guest.

RETURNS TO HOME.
Mrs. F. J. Kepler of Dawson, who came to Bismarck to take part in the Thursday Musical club concert and who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, returned to her home today.

Quartet Program Pleased Audience

A pleasingly varied program, full of college pep and enthusiasm, was given by the members of "The Dakota Four" in their concert at the Evangelical church last evening. The church was well filled and the attentive audience called for a large number of encores.

Jamestown college students, members of "The Dakota Four" were: W. M. Wesley, J. M. Bauer, Peter Vellenga and E. Herzberg.

The program was opened with a short prayer by Rev. C. F. Strutz, followed by the singing of "Remember Me, O Mighty One," a sacred number by the quartette. The next group contained two songs, "The Winter Song," by Ballard, and "The Pigeon Song," a negro lullaby. "May I Print?" the next number, was dramatized and was effective. Mr. Wesley then sang two solos, "The Two Grenadiers," Schuman, and "Little Mother of Mine," accompanied by Miss Rose Strutz, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Strutz, of the city. Miss Strutz, who is connected with the music department of Jamestown college, then rendered "Polka-Melodie," by Rachmaninoff and an encore number.

Mr. Herzberg's readings "Socks Setting a Hen" and "Agnes, I Love Thee" were well received. A group of negro spirituals were given, including "Bells," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "I've Been Listenin'" and "Fishing." Mr. Vellenga sang splendidly, "Deep in the Heart of Me" and a spiritual "Didn't It Rain."

"The Rosary" and "While I Have You" were quartette numbers. A descriptive class of "The Song of the Lark" caused much laughter in the audience and "The Long Long Trail" and "The Last Long Mile," sung in unison also caused many laughs. A selection on "Cheating Gum" completed this group.

Miss Rose Strutz ably played Schumann's Valse Caprice, by Rubenstein, and a unique talking song, "I've a Pain in My Sawdust." A quartette number, "Don't Cry, My Honey," followed. "Castarophe" the next number, was very humorous.

Two bass solos "The Mighty Deep" and "Little Irish Girl" by Mr. Herzberg, were well sung. "Women" and "Farm Life in North Dakota" were two humorous ditties calling for many laughs. Mr. Bauer sang in the Scotch dialect, "A Wee Doch" and "Doris" and "Roamin' in the Gloamin'." Mr. Bauer is splendid in the Scotch songs. An informal group and a dramatic reading, "Pete Hansen's Girl's Mother," by Mr. Wesley were very good. The program concluded with the rendition of the "Stars and Stripes Forever" and a light number "Don't Worry About the God, Mother."

Following the concert the members of the quartette and friends enjoyed an informal reception at the Strutz home.

Club to Stage County Fair

Plans are being made by the House Committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club to stage a county fair at the club room Tuesday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The Mandan club will be guests of the Bismarck club on that evening and it is expected that a large number will participate in the evening's amusement. Pink lemonade, peanuts and balloons will be much in evidence and a number of side attractions have been added. One of the main features will be an old fashioned bowery dance with music furnished by the old time country fiddler.

The committee in charge is composed of the Misses Siasia Garske, Abina Plattner, Francis Mallory and Carrie Haugen.

REPRESENTATIVES HERE

Miss Ruth Olmstead and Miss Ruth Bloodgood of Washington, D. C., representatives of the Children's Bureau, arrived in Bismarck today and will work in the county for about ten days. They are doing the work for the benefit of the Children's Bureau and the Children's Code Commission, and are studying conditions in certain counties relating to juvenile delinquency and dependency.

MOVIE TO WILTON.
Mr. and Mrs. Warder Roberts and will make their home there. Mr. family moved to Wilton this morning. Roberts will be salesman for the Standard Oil company.

LEAVE FOR STEELE.
Messrs. Wesley, Bauer, Herzberg and Vellenga of the "Dakota Four" of Jamestown College, left this afternoon for Steele where they will give a concert this evening.

WILL GIVE DANCE.
The Odd Fellows will give a social dance at Odd Fellows hall tonight. Members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges and friends are invited.

MOVES TO NEW HOME.
G. N. Keriston and family who have been living at 118 West Thayer street have moved to the J. N. Hagen house.

HELLO, SPRING!

(By Berton Braley.)

Hello there, Spring, your scheduled arrival
Is due—or overdue, I ought to say;
Right now begins your annual revival
Subject, of course, to natural delay.

Your show is billed as pastoral and gentle
And that is what we hope to gaze upon,
But oftentimes when you are temperamental
You put a four-act melodrama on.

Instead of opening with scented breezes
—And lambs that gambol on the village green,
You start with roaring storms and sleet that freezes
And snow deep-drifted over all the scene.

When that occurs we naturally grumble,
Such wintry dope we audibly deplore,
"This show," we groan, "is merely rough and tumble.
It isn't what we paid our money for."

But still we know, before your act is over—
No matter how it starts—you'll change your style
And rump before us, knee deep in the clover,
Beaming before us with your tender smile.

We trust, this year, you'll start the way you finish,
Blithesome and sweet in winsome loveliness,
Making our winter weariness diminish—
But we're prepared for rough-stuff more or less.

However, you are here, distinctly present,
No matter what the weather is you bring,
We greet you, quite determined to be pleasant,
Hello there, Spring!

"Sabre said the letter was the most frightfully pathetic document he could ever have imagined. Smudged, he said, and stained and badly expressed as if the writer—this Effie Bright—was crying and incoherent with distress when she wrote it. He said she'd got into terrible trouble. She'd got a little baby. Sabre said it was awful to him the way she kept on in every sentence calling it a little baby—never a child, or just a baby, but always a little baby. 'My little baby,' he said it was awful. She said it was born in December. You remember, old man, it was the previous March she'd got the sack from them—and that she'd been living in lodgings with him, and that now she was well enough to move, and had come to the absolute end of her money, she was being turned out and was at her wit's end with despair and nearly out of her mind to know what to do and all that kind of thing. She said her father wouldn't have anything to do with her, and no one would have anything to do with her—so long as she kept her little baby. That was her plight: not one would have anything to do with her while she had the baby. Her father was willing to take her home and some kind people had offered to take her into service, but only if of them if she would give up the baby and put it out to nurse somewhere; and she said, and underlined it about fourteen times, Sabre said, and cried over it so you could hardly read it, she said: 'And, oh, Mrs. Sabre, I can't, I can't. I simply cannot give up my little baby. He's mine,' she said. 'He looks at me, and knows me, and stretches out his tiny little hands to me, and I can't give him up. I can't let my little baby go. Whatever I've done, I'm his mother and he's my little baby and I can't let him go.'"

"Sabre said it was awful. I can believe it was. I'd seen the girl, and I'd seen her stooping over her baby and I can well believe awful was the word for it. Poor soul.

"And then she said—I can remember this bit—then she said, 'And so, in my terrible distress, dear Mrs. Sabre, I am throwing myself on your mercy, and begging you, imploring you, for the love of God, to take in me and my little baby and let me work for you and do anything for you and bless you and ask God's blessing forever upon you and teach my little baby to pray for you as—something or other, I forget. And then she said a lot of hysterical things about working her fingers to the bone for Mrs. Sabre, and knowing she was a wicked girl and not fit to be spoken to by anyone, and was willing to sleep in a shed in the garden and never to open her mouth, and all that sort of thing; and all the way through 'my little baby,' 'my little baby.' Also she said, and Sabre told me this bit deliberately, also she said that she didn't want to pretend she was more than against than sinning, but that if Mrs. Sabre knew the truth she might judge less harshly and be more willing to help her. Yes, Sabre told me that."

"All right. Well, there was the appeal, there was this piteous appeal," as Sabre said, and there was Sabre profoundly touched by it, and there was his wife bridling over it, one up against her husband who'd always stuck up for the girl, d'you see, and about two million up in justification of her own opinion of her. There, they were, and then Sabre said, 'Well, what are you going to do about it?'"

"You can imagine his wife's tone. 'Do about it? Do about it? What on earth do you think I'm going to do about it?'"

"She was furious. Absolutely white and speechless with fury; but not speechless long, Sabre said, and I dare say she wasn't. Sabre said she worked herself up in the most awful way and used language about the girl that cut him like a knife—language like speaking of the baby as 'that brat.' It made him wince. It would—the sort of chap he is. And he said that the more she railed, the more frightfully he realized the girl's position, up against that sort of thing everywhere she turned."

"He described all that to me and then, so to speak, he stated his case. 'Well, what I say to you, Harpwood, is not what I said to my wife. I felt that the girl had a claim on us. In the first place, she'd turned baby. She must stop!

"His wife went off to the kitchen. In about two hours his wife came back dressed to go. She said, 'There's only one more thing I want to say to you. You say this woman—' (This woman, you know! old Sabre said when he was telling me.) 'You say this woman has a claim on us.'"

"He began, 'Mabel, I do. I—' She said, 'Do you want my answer to that? My answer is that perhaps she has a claim on you!'"

"And she went."

"Well, there you are, old man. That's the story. That's the end. There he is, and there's the girl, and there's the baby; and he's what he says he is—what I told you: a social outcast, beyond the pale, ostracized, excommunicated. No one will have anything to do with him. They've cleared him out of the office, or as good as done so. He says the man Twynning worked that. The man Twynning—that Judas Iscariot chap, is very thick with old Bright, the girl's father. Old Bright pretty naturally thinks his daughter has gone back to the man who is responsible for her ruin, and this Twynning person—wrote to Sabre and told him that, although he personally didn't believe it—for a moment, old man," he wrote—Still Sabre would appreciate the horrible scandal that had arisen, and would appreciate the fact that such a scandal could not be committed in a firm like theirs with its high and holy Church connections. He said that he and Fortune had given the position their most earnest and sympathetic thought and prayers—and prayers, mark you—and that he'd come to the conclusion that the best thing to be done was for Sabre to resign."

"Sabre says he was knocked pretty well silly by this step. He says it was his first realization of the attitude that everybody was going to take against him."

"Well, I said to him, 'Yes, that's all right, Sabre. Where's this going to end? Where's it going to land you?' It's landed you pretty fiercely as it is. What are you doing about it?"

"He said he was writing round, writing to advertisers and to societies and places, to find a place where the girl would be taken in to work and allowed to have her baby with her. He said there must be hundreds of kind-hearted people about the place who would do it; it was only a question of finding them. Well, as to that, kind hearts are more than corsets and all that kind of thing, but it strikes me they're a jolly site harder than corsets to find when it comes to a question of an unmarried mother and her baby, and when the kind hearts, being found, come to make inquiries and find that the person making application on the girl's behalf is the man she's apparently living with, and the man with Sabre's extraordinary record in regard to the girl. I didn't say that to poor old Sabre. All that chain of circumstances, eh? Went out of his way to get her first job. Got her into his house. In a way responsible for her getting the sack. Child born just about when it must have been born after she'd been sacked. Girl coming to him for help. Writing to his wife, 'If only you knew the truth!' Wife leaving him. Eh? It's pretty fierce, isn't it? I don't believe he realizes for a moment what an extraordinary coil it all is. God help him if he ever does. He'll want it."

"No, I didn't say a word like that to him. I said, 'What do you suppose your wife's thinking all this time?'"

"He said his wife would be absolutely all right once he'd found a home for the girl and sent her away. 'I said, 'H'm. Heard from her?'"

MCDONALD WINS OVER KRAUSE IN HANDY FASHION

St. Paul Welterweight Demonstrates Class Before Fans in Mandan Arena

FOGARTY SHOWS UP WELL

"Handy" McDonald, St. Paul welterweight, demonstrated his class and experience in impressive fashion in his 10-round bout with "Bat" Krause of Bismarck, in the Mandan Fair Grounds arena last night. McDonald scored a technical knock-out in the tenth round of the boxing match.

The boys weighed in at 142½ in the afternoon, there being an ounce difference in the weights. McDonald is a rangy fighter, taller and with greater reach than Krause, who demonstrated his marvelous physique by taking a hitting few men could stand.

The first round was even and the rest were McDonald's. Krause generally was on the defensive, but in the early rounds rushed a few times with some success, and joined McDonald in one time in the sixth round. Krause's friends said he hurt his hand which had been injured once before. From then on it was a question of whether Krause could stick out the 10 rounds. McDonald hit him at will and in the seventh Krause began rushing into clinches frequently. In the ninth round Krause took the count of nine and was again down at the bell. In the tenth he went down for the count four times, being counted out the last time.

The preliminaries furnished some real excitement for the 700 fans in the arena. Two tots, Gable and Frankie Eckroth, 7 and 9 years old, sparred four rounds and were showered with coins. Bob Huff, 178, of Minn. and Bob Gray, 181, Sims, did not box long. Sims being counted out in the first round.

Bahn, of Mandan, and Jaus, of Dickinson, furnished some fast boxing, but the bout ended in the second round with the Dickinson boy winner. The latter was announced as being 14 years old, weighing 118 pounds, and had never lost a match. Les McDonald and Gray boxed three rounds. Flock and Hoffman put up a fast little, which was Hoffman's until Flock got an opening and put Hoffman out. Fogarty, of Bismarck, introduced as the coming lightweight champion of the Northwest, had no difficulty disposing of Brady, of Fargo, in the third round.

Al Barton referred the bouts and gave satisfaction to all. There were several women present who seemed to enjoy the exhibition.

There will be a boxing card in Bismarck April 28, it was announced.

WILLIS ONLY SEEKER FOR HEAVY TITLE

Colored Fighter Only Rival for Jack Dempsey's Crown Who Appears to Have a Chance With Present Heavyweight Champion

BY BOB DORMAN
New York, April 21.—Jack Dempsey's European trip promises to be little more than the usual tourist sight-seeing trip.

When it is considered that this country has been unable to produce a heavyweight conceded a chance of giving the hard-hitting champion any sort of a battle it is hardly likely that Europe can do so.

England has Joe Beckett, Tom Cowler, Bombardier Wells, Albert Lloyd, Frank Goddard and George Cook, all veterans who have seen their best days with the exception of Cook, who does not rank very high, as the fast slipping Beckett stopped him the other night.

O'HARA UPSETS GOLF DOPE

Pat O'Hara, the professional of the Richmond County Club of Staten Island, N. Y., spring something of a golfing sensation at the recent north and south open championship at Pinehurst, N. C., by winning the title from a very classy field.

O'Hara turned in a score of 220 for 54 holes. The tourney was originally a 72-hole event.

O'Hara had turned in a 69 for his second 18 holes. Shortly after completing his rounds a terrific rain storm set in, preventing a number of other players from finishing their round. It was decided to throw all scores made in the second 18 holes into the discard.

Had the scores made in the second round stood O'Hara would have broken all records at Pinehurst with a 289 for the 72 holes.

In winning the north and south title O'Hara turned back a great field, including such cracks as Jim Barnes, Jack Hutchinson, Walter Hagen, Mike Brady and Joe Kirkwood.

NEW FOUL RULE IN BASKETBALL

Will Eliminate Much Scoring From Foul Line

At the eighth annual meeting of the Joint Basketball committee, which held sessions in New York, a change was made in the foul rule which will eliminate fully a third of the present scoring from foul and should, in the opinion of the committee, materially improve the game. At the preliminary session on Friday it seemed unlikely that any alteration in the foul rule would be made, but when the matter came up for debate sentiment was found to be overwhelmingly in favor of a change.

The new rule, which is the adoption of one of the suggestions of the sub-committee headed by Dr. Raymond of Princeton, provides a penalty without ever using the foul line, namely, the giving of the ball into the possession of the opponents. This penalty, however, is inflicted after technical fouls only, personal fouls being penalized under a second new rule.

The reading of the rule regarding technical fouls follows: "When the technical foul is made the ball is awarded to the opponents at the point where the foul is committed, with the right to put the ball into play with an unguarded pass. They shall not be permitted to dribble, or shoot for goal."

This rule does away entirely with the free throw as a penalty for technical fouls.

The penalty for personal fouls differs according to the point on the court where the foul is committed. If the personal foul is committed within a certain area, hereafter to be called the penalty area, at either end of the court, the penalty will be greater than if the foul be committed outside that space. The penalty area is a zone formed by the extension of the present free throw line to either side of the court.

The present free throw line is 15 feet in front of the basket, or 17 feet within the court, so that the penalty zone, which will be formed by line 17 feet from the end line of the court, parallel to the back line, will be as wide as the court. And for personal fouls committed within this zone, the price paid will be two free throws, or a personal foul committed outside of the zones, the penalty will stand as at present, namely, a single free throw.

The following is the reading of the regulation governing personal fouls: Provide a penalty area at each end of the court comprising the space between the end line and a line passing through the free throw line or a line passing tangent to the free throw circles as may be decided. All personal fouls committed by a team when the opponents are in possession of the ball in the penalty area under their own goal shall be penalized by the award of two free throws. All other personal fouls committed elsewhere on the court or in either penalty area when the ball is in possession of the defending team shall be penalized by the award of one free throw."

Umpire Klem Holds Record

National League Arbitrator Once Banished 22 Players

The other day in a game at Cincinnati Umpire Bill Klem of the National League chased 14 of the Chicago players from the bench to the clubhouse. With only 11 men available Chicago won the game 5 to 1. The wholesale banishment came in the first inning.

Someone suggested to Klem that sending 13 players to the clubhouse was a record but the umpire says nothing doing if the count of the newspapermen in a game at New York was correct.

In a game at the Polo grounds several years ago I cleared the bench as the result of a decision that failed to please. The official count was given as 22.

It looked to me as if there were 100 as the players went to the clubhouse using the lock-step and taking plenty of time."

Shifts Style; Fails to Show Howard Ehmke of Detroit Is The Mystery Pitcher

No brainier pitcher ever threw a ball than Christy Mathewson. He once said that a pitcher in order to be successful must develop a certain style and stick to it.

If you find that you are most effective as a sidearm pitcher, use that style; if you can get more on the ball overhead, use that method. Or all

UNIVERSITIES HAVE TO ASK ASSISTANCE

Oxford and Cambridge, For First Time, Unable To Support Themselves

"STUDENT DEMOCRACIES"

London, April 22.—Oxford and Cambridge Universities, for the first time in their long histories, are unable to support themselves, and have called upon the public for assistance.

This was disclosed in a report issued by the Royal Commission appointed under the chairmanship of ex-premier Asquith to investigate the financial condition of the two institutions, which two years ago was admittedly so unsatisfactory that the government granted each of them an emergency subsidy of 30,000 pounds annually, thus saving both colleges from collapse.

Including these subsidies, Oxford had an income of $24,710 pounds in 1920, while Cambridge totaled 719,554 pounds. The Commission's report recommends increasing the annual grants to 100,000 pounds each, with additional provisions for extending educational facilities for women and paying pension arrears.

The commission stresses the point that today the universities have largely returned to their original function of ministering to the non-wealthy student, and have, in fact, become "student democracies."

In addition to recommending ample facilities for the education of women, the report pleads for more state scholarships, cheaper living costs and better pay, with pension prospects, for professors.

Although the report regrets "the comparative neglect of living languages" at both universities, it notes that there is an increasing tendency on the part of business men to look to universities for trained men as future assistants and partners. It adds that "business salaries now offered to first-class science men would make it impossible to keep enough of the best men to do the teaching at Oxford and Cambridge were it not for their devotion to academic research and teaching and their attachment to the university."

As regards the cost of living for undergraduates, the report finds that it is too high. In 1919-20 the average total year's cost for an arts student, including food but not clothes, washing, books, stationery and personal expenses was 156 pounds for Oxford and 145 pounds for Cambridge. The cheapest college during that year was Oxford, 114 pounds; Cambridge, 133 pounds. The dearest was at Oxford, 209 pounds; Cambridge, 172 pounds.

Marquis Curzon is chancellor of Oxford, where the number of resident undergraduate students according to the latest statistics is 4,531, while at Cambridge, where Sir Arthur Balfour is chancellor, there are 5,733 students.

CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS ALARMED

Stockholm, April 22.—Conservative elements here are alarmed over the extensive and well organized propaganda campaign being made on behalf of the new commercial treaty between Sweden and Soviet Russia, which is before the Riksdag with a fair chance of ratification.

The treaty provides admittance to Sweden of an official Soviet representative, and the admittance to Russia of a like representative of Sweden. The representatives are to be purely for trade protection and extension and both will agree to abstain from propaganda.

A particular clause of the treaty

SWEDEN-U. S. TO HAVE DIRECT COMMUNICATION

Heretofore All Cable Communications Between Them Have Been Relayed From London

Stockholm, April 22.—For the first time in history Sweden and the United States will have direct telegraphic communication through the erection of a high power radio station which is to be constructed immediately on the Swedish west coast. Heretofore all cable or radio communications between the two countries were relayed from London or Paris.

The stupendous long ago appropriation of the initial sum of 2,000,000 kronor, more than $350,000, to begin the work, but it was not until recently that the Swedish State Telegraph Board and the Radio Corporation of America reached a satisfactory agreement under which the fees for all radio traffic will be divided equally between the two countries.

When the State Telegraph Board reported to the Swedish government that the previous obstacles in the way of building the station had been removed contract bids were called for from the leading radio constructing companies of the world. On the basis of offers thus obtained it is calculated that the cost of the new station will not exceed 5,000,000 kronor, about $1,400,000.

One reason strongly favoring an immediate start of work is the serious unemployment situation in Sweden. It is believed that at least $1,000,000 will find its way into the pockets of the Swedish jobless who will be engaged in building the station.

The total telegraphic traffic between Sweden and North and Central America amounted last year to 1,650,000 words. The head office of the new station will be located in Gothenburg.

KIDNAPS WIFE, IS SENTENCED TO WORKHOUSE

Husband of Former Bismarck Girl Fails in Attempt to Seize His Own Spouse

Mr. Irving L. Stair, a former resident of Bismarck, was kidnapped by her own husband in Minneapolis, but managed to escape, and he has been sent to the workhouse for 60 days as penalty for the act.

Mrs. Stair was formerly Miss Alice Flannery, daughter of Geo. P. Flannery, president of the Northwestern Trust company, St. Paul, and sister of Henry O. Flannery, assistant state attorney-general. Mrs. Stair formerly resided in Bismarck. She had entered suit for divorce against her husband and an order had been issued by the court prohibiting him from interfering with her. Irving L. Stair is president of the Great Northern Grain Company.

The families are prominent socially in the Twin Cities.

The incidents were related by Mrs. Stair in district court.

Threatened With Revolver. According to her story, she was about to retire early Monday night when her bedroom door suddenly opened and Stair, with his cap pulled down and a revolver in his hand, entered.

"If you scream I'll kill you," he was quoted as threatening.

Under his command, the wife was forced to dress.

Before they departed, she said, Stair forced her to write a note addressed to the maid in which she explained that she was leaving for a week's visit. This note was tossed into the nursery as they walked through the house.

Outdoors, Mrs. Stair said, was the husband's coupe. She was forced to enter and was locked in.

Stair told her, according to her account, that he was going to take her to his mother, but instead he drove to St. Cloud.

"If you'll be good to me and withdraw the divorce suit, I'll be good to you," Stair was quoted as saying.

Arriving in St. Cloud, Stair tried to go to several hotels but found them filled. Finally, they went to the St. Cloud hotel, where they obtained a room.

The next morning Mrs. Stair said she begged her husband to take her home and he promised to do it. When they were about to leave, however, she said he changed his mind.

"Oh, I'm not going to take you home," he was reported to have said. "I just told you that to stop you from 'bawling.'"

She Managed to Escape. Stair told her they were about to change hotels and they went into the lobby of the St. Cloud hotel, where she seated herself. While Stair continued his threat against her, she explained, she managed to get word to a man seated nearby. She asked him to call up her father in St. Paul and get him word of her plight.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn. — "Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past." Mrs. L. T. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with general female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.
